

THE BELL

Legend of the Sunken Bell

THE STORY

While the rulers were reveling in luxury at the mighty Bled Castle in the early 16th century, the serfs were drowning in mud and worries. The heavy hand of taxes was mercilessly pressing down on the people, while the domestic Carniolan outlook was obscured by the dark shadow of the Turkish threat. Anger in the secret corners of the lands became ready to erupt into the fire of rebellion - a fire that did not bode well for the ruler Hartman Von Kreigh.

The film was created as part of the project 'My Place, My Project', which is financed from the participatory budget of the Municipality of Bled, intended for young people in 2024.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

"I think it's wonderful that we were able to breathe new life into this legendary Bled story and show it in a light that is probably unknown to many. I am immensely proud that I was able to create in my hometown with such a wonderful team and cast, with whom we spent a tiring but at the same time beautiful week of filming. I think that with this project we added a small piece to the mosaic of Bled's cultural heritage, and set a new milestone for filmmaking in Bled and the surrounding area."
